

High School Holiday Programme 2022

English Teaching College

Palmerston North, Wellington & Lower Hutt
New Zealand

ETC High School Holiday Programme (Group Study)

Established in 1993, ETC has been teaching general and academic English to both domestic and international students from all over the world. We also arrange a variety of activities for our students, including sports and local unique nature trails as well as cultural and educational activities.

ETC can accommodate groups of young international students during their school holidays; we teach them English to facilitate learning for their high school study.

The duration of this programme is for 2 weeks during term breaks, or longer in the summer holidays. We can arrange accommodation i.e. homestay which includes 3 meals a day if required.

ETC is a:

- ▶ Multi-cultural school
- ▶ In the city centre location
- ▶ Our courses approved by NZQA
- ▶ We have campuses in Palmerston North, Wellington and Lower Hutt
- ▶ Signatory to the Education (Pastoral Care of Tertiary and International Learners) Code of Practice 2021

ETC is a NZQA Category One Provider.

Study hours: 9am - 3pm

E-mail: office@etc.ac.nz

Website: www.etc.ac.nz

Come to Palmerston North in the Manawatu and experience New Zealand.

We can accommodate groups of high school students during their term breaks.

The package includes:

English lessons - our curriculum includes essay writing, research and presentation skills as well as commonly used New Zealand colloquial phrases or expressions.

Enrolment fee and course material costs are included.

Some activities are included to enhance students' learning and communication skills.

Buses within Palmerston North are free for ETC students.

Activities (examples):

Environment related activities: wind farm and nature walk

Maori culture class: poi making, flax weaving or/and learn Maori greetings and songs

Sports and Cultural activities: golf, squash, BBQ, beach, farm visit, NZ cooking

Class hours: 9am - 3pm (full-time)

Study in the vibrant cities of Wellington or Lower Hutt.

We can accommodate groups of high school students during their term breaks.

The package includes:

English lessons - our curriculum includes essay writing, research and presentation skill as well as commonly used New Zealand colloquial phrases or expressions.

Enrolment fee and course material costs are included.

Some activities are included to enhance students' learning and communication skills.

Activities (examples):

City walk, Parliament Tour, Te Papa visit, NZ cooking

Maori culture class: poi making, flax weaving or/and learn Maori greetings and songs

High School Programme fees (2-week programme)

Total Cost $1,120 per student

Includes enrolment fees, tuition and school based activities.

Minimum number of students: 10

Entry requirements: 14 + years old, valid visa to study in New Zealand

Students must be enrolled in a NZ school, have Medical and Travel Insurance for international students (Southern Cross, Uni-Care etc...).

For further information, please contact:

ETC - English Teaching College

Head Office

140 The Square, Palmerston North 4410

Phone: + 64 6 357 7107

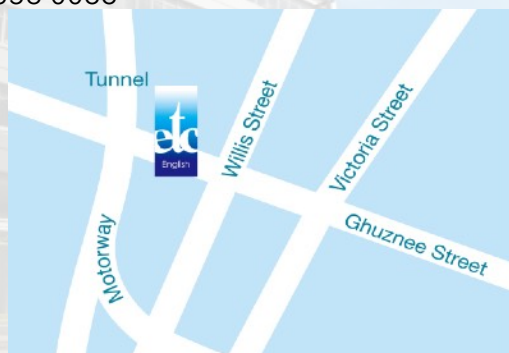

E-mail: office@etc.ac.nz

Website: www.etc.ac.nz

ETC Wellington

204 Willis Street, Te Aro

Phone: 04 358 0066

ETC Lower Hutt

Level 3, MacKay House, 92 Queens Drive

Phone: 04 974 9984

